LET'S TURN AYLESBURY PURPLE

Relay for Life Aylesbury will be turning the town purple again on Friday 23rd June 2017 – raising vital funds for Cancer Research UK. All the money raised helps to support Cancer Research UK, whose ambition is that 3 in 4 people will survive their cancer in the next 20 years. Purple Friday is an easy way to help fund ground-breaking research and it's fun.

Schools, shops, offices etc can sign up for Purple Friday. Wear purple clothes, colour your hair, bake purple cakes, decorate the shop window – the choice is yours. What will you do to celebrate Purple Friday?

For more information on how you can take part please contact

WHAT IS RELAY FOR LIFE?

Relay for Life is a 24hour community event starting at 12pm on 1st July 2017 that celebrates cancer survivors, remembers those lost and rallies everyone to fight back so that we can bring forward the day when all cancers are cured. Team members take to the track to walk while a festival atmosphere goes on around them. There is live music, fun and games for everyone.

In the lead up to the Relay weekend, teams carry out all sorts of fundraising activities: from Quiz Nights to Cake Sales, Pamper sessions to Half Marathons . Relay for Life is fun for ALL the family and is suitable for every ability – everyone is welcome!
