

RELAY FOR LIFE AYLESBURY TURNS THE TOWN PURPLE!

Relay for Life Aylesbury 2016 will be turning the town purple on Friday 24th June raising money for Cancer Research UK – and raising awareness of the disease which affects one in three people.

Schools and businesses are signing up for Purple Friday, wearing purple clothes & wigs and donating cash for the privilege!

Chair of Relay for Life Aylesbury Paula Kirby says Purple Friday 2015, raised over £7,300 so we are going to do it again! It is a simple and fun way to take part, no matter what your age or fitness level:

“Many individuals and organisations want to be involved in Relay but can’t form a full team. Dressing up for the day in purple, the colour which honours our cancer survivors, is something everyone can do.”

Relay for Life Aylesbury takes place for 24 hours from 12 noon on 2nd July at Aylesbury Rugby Club. Teams have to keep at least one team member on the walking track throughout the event, day and night. Now in its 8th year, Relay for Life Aylesbury raised a staggering £108,538 for Cancer Research UK in 2015 through the amazing efforts of 28 teams.
